

March 17, 2011

My name is Christian Smith

In September of 2007 I was severely injured in an accident at work that was not my fault. I called approximately 20-30 different law firms (some of them very well known) and nobody would talk to me or take the case. I was told you don't have a case. I exhausted my efforts of ever being able to do anything about it. In 2009 I heard on CNN about a work injury case in New York where two undocumented workers sued and won a very substantial amount of money. I got angry and started to call law firms again. I came upon Norman Skeens of Skeens and Anderson Law Firm.

He was approximately the 5th person I called that morning and he said "Yea come on in and let's talk". I couldn't believe what I was hearing. It was like the light to the end of a tunnel.

I went to his office to talk to him and I immediately felt very comfortable with him and his staff. They have been very kind, helpful and comforting through this whole process.

Norman went to bat for me and we have now settled my case. I am very pleased with the outcome of my settlement. Without Norman none of this would have been possible. I highly recommend Norman Skeens to anybody. His office is very professional, kind and caring.

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in blue ink that reads "Christian Smith". The signature is written in a cursive style with a large, sweeping initial "C" and a long horizontal line extending from the end of the name.

Christian Smith